Disclaimer: Application does not guarantee acceptance into the Festival. All applications are subject to review and approval. Fees will be processed once acceptance is confirmed. Funds are committed to the promotion of the event, as such fees are non-refundable.

In consideration of being granted space as a food vendor by the Wine Capital Weekend committee ("WCW"), the vendor agrees to the following terms, conditions and considerations:

- In an effort to be more environmentally conscious and minimize the carbon-footprint of the Festival we are asking that NO STYROFOAM containers be used and that efforts are made to select environmentally sound containers and flatware.
- Units must be self-contained, no option for access to water is available. Unless a 15-amp power connection ($85 fee) has been confirmed, on your registration and receipt of payment, no power will be available.
- Vendors who booked a power site are responsible for ensuring that all their equipment, power cords and plug-ins meet BC Safety Authority Electrical Standards. Power use will not be permitted if vendor is in violation or is using damaged electrical connections.
- Vendors are required to provide a photo of the menu and pricing prior to the event, prices must match advertised pricing.
- Vendor shall be responsible for any damage to property if assessed by Oliver Parks & Recreation. Vendors should take measures to ensure that their location does not have any grey water, grease, debris, or garbage. The Site Clean-Up deposit will be withheld for any violation and additional penalties may apply. Vendors must provide at least ONE garbage bin and are encouraged to provide a recycle bin also. Any area that is not left to park standards will forfeit the Site Clean-Up Deposit.
- Festival site is non-smoking, except in designated areas. No pets are allowed on at the venue.
- Vendors are responsible for providing WCW with a valid certificate of insurance that covers the festival dates and expressly names BOTH Oliver Tourism Association AND Town of Oliver as additional insured
- All vendors with the intent to cook or serve food for sale, sampling or demonstration purposes must meet all BC health regulations and provide a permit to operate from Interior Health (or equivalent). Every effort should be made to maintain clean and sanitary premises.
- Vendors will be directed to their designated spot, as assigned by Festival Site Manager, upon arrival at the venue. Considerations have been made to allow for vendors paying for power supply, no other requests for location will be considered.
- Vendors will be notified of set-up and take-down schedules for each day once approved.

Wine Capital Weekend Festival Food Truck Application

- WCW, Oliver Tourism Association, Town of Oliver, contractors, employees and volunteers shall not be held responsible in any way for any physical or personal damage, loss of goods or property, or liability associated with this event.
- The Vendor expressly agrees to adhere to all Municipal, Provincial, and Federal statutes, bylaws and regulations in obtaining proper permits and licenses to operate their business.
- The Vendor is not permitted to sell or serve any alcoholic beverages and to ensure that their employees and representatives are not under influence while serving.
- To ensure a positive experience for all, vendors must adhere to event guidelines and interact respectfully with staff, volunteers, and guests. If vendors do not meet these expectations, they may be asked to close their booth and return at tear-down..

I will participate in the meal voucher program to support OTA Festival Staff Meal with a reimbursement of $10 per voucher VENDOR AGREEMENT

I have read and understand the event information and guidelines, and agree to comply with the requirements to participate as a Food Truck Vendor at Festival of the Grape/Oliver Cask & Keg.
